

MAY 17-22

May 2016 marks five years since the devastating tornado that tore through Joplin and Duquesne, Missouri. To honor this occasion, we announce Joplin Proud – a series of events to remember what we lost, thank the volunteers who came to our aid, and be proud of the progress we have made as a community.

Visit Joplinproud.com for updated event list.

THROUGHOUT MAY

Journal Joplin! – An opportunity for citizens to express feelings through journaling. Journal Joplin! offers an opportunity for 161 citizens to record their thoughts on Joplin's progress and challenges that have brought the community to this anniversary. Contact Ann Leach to participate or for more information at ann.leach@sbcglobal.net.

TUESDAY, MAY 17

Here are some other fun activities going on throughout Joplin!

MAY 14 – JULY 3

Kaleidoscope of Community Butterflies – May 14 • 11 am - 2 pm Join the community at Joplin's Home Depot to paint one of more than 1,800 wooden butterflies to be displayed throughout Joplin. A gathering of butterflies is called a kaleidoscope, and, with your help, these beautiful hand-painted symbols of pride will be placed throughout our community.

Spiva Center for the Arts Dear World Revisited, Sponsored by Freeman Health System – To memorialize the one year anniversary of the 2011 Joplin tornado, Robert X. Fogarty, accompanied by writer Adam Karlin and production manager Jonny Rosenbloom, visited Joplin to capture images and messages of residents, first responders, volunteers, and city officials affected by the storm. With handwritten text on their skin, the subjects addressed the viewer with statements of hope and defiance. The resulting photos were exhibited in Spiva's Main Gallery during Dear World, From Joplin with Love in July 2012, and a book of the same title was produced.

Now, on the five year anniversary of the storm, the original photos and stories of selected storm survivors will hang in the Regional Gallery, along with updates on where they are now, how the tornado changed their life, and how our community recovered.

THURSDAY, MAY 19

Joplin Blasters Season Opening Game – 6:35 pm The Joplin Blasters open their second season in the American Association against the Winnipeg Goldeyes at the historic Joe Becker Stadium.

Third Thursday – 5-8:30 pm Visit downtown for Joplin's trademark cultural event. Thousands of people fill Main Street to enjoy local art, music, entertainment, and food.

FRIDAY, MAY 20
